DECLARATION FOR SINGAPORE TAX PURPOSES

A Capital component

The capital component of the distribution represents a return of capital to unitholders for tax purposes and is therefore not subject to income tax. For unitholders who hold the units as trading assets, the amount of capital distribution will be applied to reduce the cost base of their units for the purpose of calculating the amount of taxable trading gains arising from the disposal of the units. No tax will be deducted at source from this component.

B Tax-exempt income component

The tax-exempt income component of the distribution is exempt from tax in the hands of all unitholders. No tax will be deducted at source from this component.

C Taxable income component

Tax will be deducted at source from the taxable income component of the distribution in certain circumstances. The following section describes the circumstances in which tax will or will not be deducted from taxable income distribution

1. The Trustee and Manager of PLife REIT will not deduct tax from distributions made out of PLife REIT's taxable income that is not taxed at PLife REIT's level to:
 - (a) Unitholders who are individuals and who hold the units either in their sole names or jointly with other individuals;
 - (b) Unitholders which are companies incorporated and tax resident in Singapore;
 - (c) Unitholders which are Singapore branches of foreign companies; or

- (d) Unitholders which are non-corporate entities (excluding partnerships) constituted or registered in Singapore, such as:
 - (i) institutions, authorities, persons or funds specified in the First Schedule to the Income Tax Act (Cap. 134);
 - (ii) co-operative societies registered under the Co-operative Societies Act (Cap. 62);
 - (iii) trade unions registered under the Trade Unions Act (Cap. 333);
 - (iv) charities registered under the Charities Act (Cap. 37) or established by an Act of Parliament; and

- 2. For distributions made to classes of unitholders that do not fall within the categories stated under Note 1 above, the Trustee and the Manager of PLife REIT will deduct tax at the rate of 10%[@] if the unitholders are qualifying foreign non-individual investors. A qualifying foreign non-individual investor is one which is not a resident of Singapore* for income tax purposes and:
 - (a) which does not have a permanent establishment^ in Singapore; or
 - (b) which carries on any operation in Singapore through a permanent establishment in Singapore, where the funds used to acquire the units in PLife REIT are not obtained from that operation.

- 3. Unitholders are required to complete the applicable Section A, B or C of the "Declaration for Singapore Tax Purposes Form A" ("Form A") if they fall within the categories (b) to (d) stated under Note 1 or Section D of Form A if they qualify as a foreign non-individual investor as described under Note 2.

- 4. The Trustee and the Manager of PLife REIT will rely on the declarations made in Form A to determine (i) if tax is to be deducted for the categories of unitholders listed in (b) to (d) under Note 1; and (ii) if tax is to be deducted at the rate of 10% for distributions to foreign non-individual investors.

- 5. Unitholders who fall within class (a) under Note 1 are not required to submit Form A.

- 6. Unitholders who do not fall within the classes of unitholders listed in Note 1 and Note 2 above can choose not to return Form A as tax will be deducted from the taxable income distributions made to them at the prevailing corporate tax rate in any case.

- 7. The Trustee and the Manager of PLife REIT will deduct tax at the prevailing corporate tax rate from distributions made out of PLife REIT's taxable income that is not taxed at PLife REIT's level, in respect of units held by depository agents except where the beneficial owners of these units are:
 - (a) Individuals and the units are not held through a partnership in Singapore;
 - (b) Qualifying unitholders (as listed in categories (b) to (d) under Note 1); or
 - (c) Foreign non-individual investors.

For units held through the depository agents, the depository agents must complete the "Declaration by Depository Agents for Singapore Tax Purposes Form B" ("Form B") and its annexes (Annex 1 for individuals, Annexes 2 and 2.1 for qualifying unitholders and Annex 3 for foreign non-individuals).

8. Form A and Form B (and its annexes) will be sent to unitholders and depository agents respectively, by PLife REIT's Unit Registrar, Boardroom Corporate & Advisory Services Pte. Ltd., on or around 11 August 2015.

The Trustee and the Manager of PLife REIT will rely on the declarations made in Form A and Form B to determine if tax is to be deducted. Failure to comply with any of these requirements will render Form A and Form B invalid and the Trustee and the Manager of PLife REIT will be obliged to deduct the appropriate amount of tax from the distribution in respect of which this announcement is made.
10. Unitholders who hold units under the Central Provident Fund Investment Scheme (CPFIS) and the Supplementary Retirement Scheme (SRS) do not have to return the Form as they will receive gross distributions paid to their respective CPFIS and SRS accounts.
